

Fall 2021

Balancing Medical School with Life

Katie Lamar

Nova Southeastern University, kl1277@mynsu.nova.edu

Follow this and additional works at: <https://nsuworks.nova.edu/bestill>

Part of the Creative Writing Commons, Fine Arts Commons, Medical Education Commons, Medical Humanities Commons, and the Photography Commons

Recommended Citation

Lamar, Katie (2021) "Balancing Medical School with Life," be Still: Vol. 5 , Article 19.

Available at: <https://nsuworks.nova.edu/bestill/vol5/iss1/19>

This Poem is brought to you for free and open access by the College of Osteopathic Medicine at NSUWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in be Still by an authorized editor of NSUWorks. For more information, please contact nsuworks@nova.edu.

A poem about the trials of work life balance in medical school.

KATIE LAMAR IS A THIRD YEAR MEDICAL STUDENT

Balancing Medical School with Life

- ▶ 12 long years, I waste away
- ▶ For a promised goal, a better day
- ▶ And as I put off my family, all for a brighter future.

- ▶ Another wedding has come and gone
- ▶ But I keep working for hours, they are so long
- ▶ And as I put off my family, all for a brighter future.

- ▶ Another weekend, I study all day
- ▶ I can't go out I tell my friends, I have to stay
- ▶ And as I put off my friends, all for a brighter future.

- ▶ This career I've worked on for so long
- ▶ So many years, they all have gone
- ▶ And as I put off my family, all for a brighter future.

- ▶ My winter break, I decide to spend
- ▶ With loved ones, family and friends
- ▶ Because I can't always put off my family, I must balance them with my work towards a brighter future.

POET: KATIE LAMER